from 10/2008 (Series of products X204)

Universal Media Interface

For Audio 20 CD without surround sound system (Code 810)

Order number A2048705896

◆ The intelligent retrofit plug & play solution turns the Audio 20 CD into a universal navigation and entertainment centre.

Whether you want to plug in a USB stick or an MP3 player with your choice of MP3 music or the latest map material for easy navigation - whether you want to stream music from a mobile phone or listen to hit lists from an iPod®/iPhone® or your favourite cassettes from a now near-classic Walkman: with the innovative Universal Media Interface connector in the glove compartment each of these data sources is within easy reach - and can be operated conveniently using the controller on the Audio 20 CD.
